

I am against new rules that would give LPFM stations priority over current FM translator service. I listen to Air 1 and it serves our local community with unique music. We have no local stations that broadcast this type of programming. Air 1 meets a need for our local community in Amarillo that would be missed if taken off the air. Steve Martin, Amarillo, TX